

BELTON HOUSE – Statuary Collection

Challenge

Original garden statuary was stolen, lost, damaged or unrecognisable due to weathering and replacement garden statuary was required. The new figures set on the Belton Orangery at the beginning of the 19th Century were badly disfigured by attempted theft.

Solution

Using an oblique photo as reference to one missing statue Cliveden Conservation Workshop carved a replacement in statuary marble in the style of the accompanying muse figures beside.

Results

On this occasion the professional and highly skilled team were able to restore these statues for the future generations to further enjoy.
